NEED COLLIERS, SAYS COWLES, TO ACCOMPANY FLEET

Washington, Nov. 28.—Rear Admiral Cowles in his annual report strongly urges more colliers for the navy. Present colliers are utterly insufficient. He cites the recent voyage of the Atlantic fleet when it was necessary to employ foreign vessels as colliers. He declares that if foreign complications had arisen or foreign owners had formed a combination the fleet could not have made the trip. The same situation is likely to occur in war times.

Hickman County Prisoners Break Jail by Overpowering and Beating Up Jailer Noonan With Own Gun

Six Desperate Criminals Attack Him as He Carries in Food to Them—Three Cross River—None Escape.

Hickman, Ky., Nov. 28. (Special.)—Six prisoners, three white and three colored, charged with burglary, forgery and other crimes, escaped from jail here Thursday night by overpowering Jailer Noonan when he went to take in supper. They took his pistol and beat him. Three took to the hills and three crossed the river and are not yet captured.

Uncle Joe Noonan, the jail keeper, went into the jail at 4 o'clock with supper for the prisoners. Just after he got in and had locked the door he was seized from behind by the prisoners. He managed to get his pistol from his hip pocket, and thought he had it against the prisoner, but when he fired the bullet went into the wall. He was hurled to the ground and struck on his head with his own pistol, and also received a bad cut in the left hand. The prisoner who had the pistol got the keys, and he and five others got away. Three went toward the hills and three made for the river. The three latter found a skiff right in front of the town and got away to the Missouri shore. Quick pursuit was made after all of them, but every one managed to get away. "Uncle Joe" was rather badly jarred, receiving a long cut in the head and a cut in the hand, but he managed to crawl out of the jail and give the alarm. Two prisoners did not attempt to escape.

Shenandoah, Pa., Nov. 28.—A remarkable tribute to a priest was paid at the funeral of the Rev. H. F. O'Reilly, rector of the Roman Catholic Church of the Annunciation here for forty years. Twenty-five colliers, employing more than 16,000 men and boys, in the Shenandoah and Mahoney valleys, were shut down to enable the workers to pay their respects to the dead priest. The public schools here, at Mahoney City and other surrounding communities were closed, and all business in Shenandoah was suspended. More than 200 priests attended the funeral services. Andre is making a thorough inquiry in the hope of unraveling the mystery of Faur's death. It is believed Madame Steinheil is insane and guards are watching her constantly.

THOUSANDS BUY TAGS FROM YOUNG WOMEN ON STREET

Business Houses and Public Offices Are Invaded by Eager Taggers.

Enjoyable Incidents During Earnest Hunt for Dimes.

PREPARING FOR EUCHE NEXT

"Tag Day" dawned clear, but about 11 o'clock a drizzling rain began falling, but the work of pinning the tags on everyone did not cease. The young women were at their posts of duty early this morning and despite the rain were busy all day. When the count is made it is certain that a large sum will be realized for the benefit of the charity wards of Riverside hospital.

Haunts of the officials, both city and county, were invaded by the hospital cause. Many amusing incidents have happened during the day. This morning Misses Ethel Brooks and Belle Cave began with the officials, and the first visit was the sheriff's office. As usual business was good, and Deputy Sheriffs Rogers, Fortson, Clarence and Hume Ogilvie were tagged, but the sheriff was not to be found. All of the country people were tagged and they were not half as contrary as some of the city people. Even the farmers had read or heard of "Tag Day" and the tags were carried into the country. Not to tag the sheriff caused disappointment to the young women, but suppressed laughter among the deputies caused a final search and Sheriff Ogilvie was found hidden under the counter. He crawled out and was tagged.

The next visit was the city hall, and Mayor Smith and City Solicitor Campbell were met on the steps and were tagged. Mayor Smith escaped the young women until after 10 o'clock this morning, because His Honor was busy in his office. He contributed a dollar, but 90 cents in change was refunded. Several of the citizens have offered over 10 cents for a tag, but in every instance the change has been given, or a tag given for every dime.

The city hall was invaded and police and every official contributed to the cause. Police Judge D. A. Cross was caught just as court was dismissed and tagged. The judge was "broke," and accepted the tag on credit, while several attorneys were not quite so unfortunate.

Misses Cave and Brooks went to the office of Judge E. W. Bagby, who was holding his court in bankruptcy, but he promptly dismissed the court while the young women tagged every lawyer and witness as well as the judge himself. After the tagging had been completed the wheels of the court began operation again.

Postmaster Fisher was tagged twice this morning and not one of the employees of the postoffice escaped being tagged. This afternoon the court house were rewarded with a visit.

Many of the young women did not cease work at noon, but after lunch down in the city caught and tagged the business people while going to and from work. The wholesale district was invaded by the energetic workers this morning and business firms that the girls did not know were in existence were visited.

Six thousand tags were printed, and at least 4,000 were disposed of.

It was in the mayor's office that many of the city officials were recorded with the red cross. Miss Elizabeth Kirkland, daughter of City Auditor Kirkland, was at the city hall early this morning and after making the rounds of the officials on the second floor went to the mayor's office. Miss Nunemacher, the secretary, was tagged, and Auditor Kirkland and President Rudy, of the board of public works. Fire Chief Wood was in the office and at the first warning jumped behind the door, but he was late, and he was tagged. City Solicitor Campbell walked in and received his tag, while Chief Wood went out and told Chief Collins to hurry to the mayor's office. He did and was tagged in a hurry. Police Captain Harlan, Street Inspector Bell and Patrolmen Carter and Rice walked in in time to be presented with the tags. Bystanders were no exception, and tags went so rapidly that Miss Kirkland was soon out of the red crosses.

The ladies are so gratified with the success of their first feature they have already turned their attention to the next—the eucure party. The party will be Monday night, December 7. Fifty-four prizes have been secured. The party will be given in the Elks' building, the lodge having kindly donated the club rooms for the occasion. Admission will be 50 cents.

At noon it was estimated that $300

NEXT MEETING OF PEDAGOGUES WILL BE AT KUTTAWA

Benton, Ky., Nov. 28. (Special.)—Kuttawa was chosen as the next meeting place of the First District Educational association before final adjournment was taken this afternoon. A feature of today's meeting was an address by Mrs. C. E. Purcell, of Paducah, organizer for the school improvement department of the Woman's club. Last night Dr. Byron W. King delivered an address to the association, which was highly entertaining and instructive.

Before adjourning the association elected officers as follows: Prof. W. D. Dadds, superintendent of Graves county schools, president; Professor Mydick, of Kuttawa, vice president; Professor C. W. Richards, superintendent Princeton city schools, secretary; Professor L. B. Alexander, of McCracken county, enrolling clerk. The McCracken county delegation of teachers was the largest of any county in the district, excepting Marshall county.

Suits Filed.

C. H. Unselt filed suit in circuit court against A. S. Miller for $300 due on a note secured by mortgage on live stock, a foreclosure of which is asked.

In County Court.

A copy of the will of Annie Barnhill filed for probate in the county court of Hardin county, Tennessee, was filed for record. A part of the property conveyed being situated in Paducah. All the decedent's property is given to her brother, Charles Baker.

Family Reunion Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McCreery will entertain with a family reunion dinner tomorrow at their home on North Thirteenth street. Among the guests will be: Mr. C. G. Babb, father of Mrs. McCreery; Mr. and Mrs. Martin McKenzie and their two daughters, Margaret and Loretta; Mr. and Mrs. John McCreery and son, Earl; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Roberts and children, Lucile and John; Mrs. Edward Grouse and daughters, Maude and Gertrude; Mr. and Mrs. John Markey and son, Joseph, and Mr. and Mrs. James Markey and daughters, Mary and Bewy.

In Bankruptcy.

The first meeting of the creditors of the John G. Rohkopf Buggy company was held this morning before E. W. Bagby, referee in bankruptcy. Accounts amounting to several thousand dollars were presented, and the creditors elected Mr. A. E. Boyd trustee of the estate of the bankrupt and his bond was fixed at $2,000. Appraisers for the stock were named: B. M. Philley and Alex. Kolb. The bankrupt was ordered to file a schedule of accounts before the next meeting of creditors, December 2.

In the bankruptcy case of Emmett Brown, a merchant of Slater, Ballard county, the creditors filed claims for several thousand dollars. Mr. Louis Rubel was elected trustee of the estate by the creditors, and his bond fixed at $2,500. No proof was taken this morning and the meeting was adjourned until this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Trustee H. V. Sherrill, in the case of Thomas C. Leech, a bankrupt, filed a report that a homestead valued at $1,000 and personal property to the amount of $275 had been set aside and filed a petition for the sale of all the remaining real estate of the bankrupt, which is valued at about $20,000. The property will be sold free from the liens, which amount to about $12,000. Referee Bagby set December 12 for a hearing, and then he will set a date for the sale of the property.

had been collected although few reports had been turned in. It is hoped that $500 will be collected before night. The station at the Palmer House made the biggest report at noon as an even $50 had been secured.

Even dogs did not escape being tagged. This morning two dogs were tagged by young women at the Palmer House station.

New York, Nov. 28.—Alfred Dozier, of Wilmington, whose letter to Roosevelt caused the deposition of Dupont from the Republican speakers' bureau, wrote Chairman Payne, of the Ways and Means committee, a strong letter, attacking Carnegie's suggestion to remove protection on steel and iron. He says the removal of the tariff will put the whole world at the mercy of the trusts. The danger of competition at home now keeps the trusts from making prices too high, or reducing wages too much. If the tariff was removed the international trust would be formed. Laws cannot touch them and they would reduce wages and raise prices exorbitantly. The danger of competition from abroad would prevent the establishment of independent factories. He thinks Carnegie has already arranged the organization of an international steel trust, which will begin operations as soon as the tariff is removed. He warns people to investigate thoroughly before the tariff is revised.

William Brash Electrocuted.

Auburn, N. Y., Nov. 28.—William Brash was executed in the electric chair for murdering his wife. Governor Hughes refused to interfere, after a commission examined Brash and found him sane. Brash was a great chum of Chester Gillette, having adjoining cells in murderer's row.

NEW COUNTY CEMETERY BEING PLANNED FOR USE.

A plan of the new county cemetery is being made by Deputy County Clerk James Wilcox, and when completed will be a valuable aid in keeping a record of the graves. The cemetery has been laid off into four blocks, sections being reserved for the burial of white infants and white adults and for colored infants and adults. Each grave will be numbered and a record kept of it by the county physician of every person buried in the cemetery.

Space was reserved for a tuberculosis ward near the present sanitarium while the grounds in front of the sanitarium and cemetery will be parked. The members of the present fiscal court expect to have the work of arranging the grounds at the cemetery completed before their terms of office expire.

Three or four shots were fired at a man who attempted to sneak up to a mill with a bundle in his hand by one of the sentries. BUSINESS GAINS DAILY STRENGTH ALONG BROADWAY

Retail Trade Picks Up as Season Advances and Xmas Prospects Good.

Wholesalers and Jobbers Report Growing Demand.

BANK CLEARINGS FOR WEEK

Bank clearings $547,897.

Despite the fact that there were only five business days this week the bank clearings have been up to the average, and in comparison with the six days of last week there is a nice increase in the figures.

Trade was rushing with the poultry dealers this week, as well as the grocers, and practically every line of business felt the stimulus given the trade by Thanksgiving Day. The clothing dealers have had a better week, and quite a few new hats were won on the result of the football games.

Retail trade has been good this week, and yesterday nearly all the stores were well filled with customers. The merchants were glad smiles. The Christmas trade has begun to fill the coffers. The campaign being made this year by the newspapers to encourage early Christmas shopping will have some effect, and now as Thanksgiving is over, the stores will rapidly assume holiday attire.

Wholesale dealers have been busy, too, and last night one wholesale dealer sent off telegrams to the jobbers to rush goods, for his supply is about exhausted. Traveling men, who are now on their second rounds, say that orders are heavier than on the first trip. This is due primarily to the merchant not desiring to be overloaded, but as business is increasing his small stock is dwindling, and he has to make additional purchases. One traveling man said he thought the day of the merchant's place being the warehouse is over, and that he will buy from the jobbers and manufacturers when the goods are needed.

Although the weather has been suitable for the handling of tobacco there has been little activity. Another sale of tobacco in the Green River pool is encouraging to the local men. Mr. C. W. Bohmer will be ready by Wednesday to handle tobacco. At present he is advertising his loose leaf warehouse, and consulting the farmers of McCracken and adjoining counties.

Real estate has been quiet, although nearly all of the dealers are dickering, but sales have been slow to close.

GIVING AND THANKSGIVING

Hath Opportunity been thine?
Thank Opportunity divine!
Hast thou from thy full store bestowed
With heart that leaped and cheek that glowed?
Since a glad giver thou couldst be,
Therein is boon enough for thee;
Ay, be thou grateful unto such
As felt, and owned, thy bounteous touch.

I do believe that one on high
Regards His world with fount eye,
And, giving bounty everywhere,
Knows a God's Joy beyond compare.
Can we receive light, life and power?
He gives these daily—hour by hour.
Who knoweth how our grateful need
The great All-Giver's Joy may feed?

Advisory Committee Visits New Capitol. Last June, in Paducah, at the request of the Kentucky State Federa- tion of Women's clubs, which num- bers over 8,000 representative Ken- tucky women, the president sent a committee to confer with the capitol commission in furnishing decorating and the landscape archi- tecture of the new capitol. The governor at once telegraphed his pleasure at the suggestion, with a kindly greeting to so earnest a body of women working along the many lines of culture, education, philan- thropy and civic improvement. At her leisure Mrs. Frances Simral Rik- er, of Harrodsburg, the president, appointed Mrs. Lee Huffman, of Lexington; Mrs. Gilmer Speed Adams, of Louisville, and Miss Re-becca G. Averill, of Frankfort. Communicating first with Miss Averill, the ladies from the other cities came Tuesday to see the capitol, old and new, so as to be intel- ligently informed regarding color, space and situation in case their services are needed. Many other ladies, not belonging to the Wom- an's Federation, express the wish that the homemakers of the old com- monwealth shall have a corroborative share, at least, in the details of furnishing the exquisitely beautiful capitol buildings.—Frankfort News.

Mrs. Paul Province. Sixth street, entertained the youth- Nons club at cards on Monday eve- ning in honor of Miss Lillie May Winstead and of Mrs. Ed Thomas, of Fulton, the guest of Mrs. Pro- vince. Ad- mitted to the party were Mrs. George Tink-Ed Thomas, Orleans; Mrs. Fondren Swift, Montgomery, Ga.; Mrs. Irwin M. of Thomas, of Thomasville; Walter Hall, of Thomasville.

Mrs. Hubbard S. Wells' Tea on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Nellie Barry and Miss Audrey Barry, of Reading, England, was a charming affair. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers, the pink and white color-motif being carried out. A large number of guests called during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Huston Win- stead, 629 Washington street, gave a Thanksgiving dinner on Tuesday at noon in honor of the out-of-town guests for the Winstead-Montgomery wedding. It was a delightful and elaborate occasion.

Mrs. W. B. Mills entertained in- formally at cards on Tuesday after- noon in compliment to Miss Lillie May Winstead and her bridal party. The game prize was won by Miss Eva Taylor, of Jackson, Tenn. Miss Winstead was presented with a guest of honor prize.

NATURE AND A WOMAN'S WORK

LYDIA E. PINKHAM

Nature and a woman's work combined have produced the grandest remedy for woman's ills that the world has ever known.

In the good old-fashioned days of our grandmothers they relied upon the roots and herbs of the field to cure disease and mitigate suffering.

The Indians on our Western Plains to-day can produce roots and herbs for every ailment, and cure diseases that baffle the most skilled physicians who have spent years in the study of drugs.

From the roots and herbs of the field Lydia E. Pinkham more than thirty years ago gave to the women of the world a remedy for their peculiar ills, more potent and efficacious than any combination of drugs.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is now recognized as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

Mrs. Bertha Muff, of 515 N.C. St., Louisiana, Mo., writes:

"Complete restoration to health means so much to me that for the sake of other suffering women I am willing to make my troubles public.

"For twelve years I had been suffering with the worst forms of female ills. During that time I had eleven different physicians without help. No tongue can tell what I suffered, and at times I could hardly walk. About two years ago I wrote Mrs. Pinkham for advice. I followed it, and can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Mrs. Pinkham's advice restored health and strength. It is worth mountains of gold to suffering women."

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Muff, it will do for other suffering women.

SILVER AND WHITE DINNER TO PASTOR

Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of Dr. Cave's Pastorate.

Women's Societies of the First Presbyterian Church Entertain
In His Honor.

MALE MEMBERS ARE GUESTS.

Amid decorations and a service of silver and white fifty men sat down with the Rev. W. E. Cave, at the Women's club last night, to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of Dr. Cave's pastorate of the First Presbyterian church. The dinner was given by the women's societies of the church to the male members of the congregation in honor of the occasion. The societies participating were the Missionary, Marshall Aid, Church Building and Young Ladies', and committees from each were present to supervise the preparations and service.

White chrysanthemums and white candles in silver candlesticks formed the principal decorations of the dinner covered tables, with small tables along the center, while the service was of silver. Two long tables in the upper room were occupied by the guests, Dr. Cave sitting at the head of one, and the toastmaster, Mr. Donnie McQuot, sitting at the head of the other.

The rooms were artistic and beautiful and the service was extraordinarily efficient and many compliments were passed on the work of the women, for few banquets are managed with such deftness and lack of confusion. Turkey formed the pièce de résistance of the repast, with coffee and cigars after dessert.

Mr. McQuot, who as a youth was identified with the church under the pastorate of Dr. Cave, presided with great dignity, tact and good humor, welding the impromptu responses to toasts with sharp sallies and pleasant comment into an entertaining colloquy. No special topics were assigned, and the responses were of a purely informal character.

All the ministers of the city were invited to attend and those who were able to be present were invited to speak. They were the Rev. J. R. Henry, pastor of the Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian church; the Rev. G. T. Sullivan, pastor of the Broadway Methodist church; the Rev. D. W. Fooks, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church; and the Rev. J. H. Morrison, pastor of the McMenora Presbyterian church at Memphis. The Rev. William Bourquin, pastor of the German Evangelical church, had to leave before the session was over.

Others who responded were Mr. C. L. Brunson, Mr. Earl Palmer and Mr. L. V. Armentrout. All the speakers directed their themes to Dr. Cave's life and works here and particularly their own relations with him, each representing some element in the church or community or department of the church work.

The presence of the Rev. J. H. Morrison was especially happy, as he had known Dr. Cave in Virginia, saying his first recollection of him was when he won the medal for oratory in the state of Virginia. Dr. Morrison organized the Second church here 18 years ago. He dwelt on many reminiscences of that period, recalling to the mind of many how he and one officer with warrants broke up Sunday baseball in the city and arrested the players.

Dr. Cave's face was a study in dramatic expression as the various speakers persisted in talking about him. Dr. Cave's geniality and warmth is backed by a dignity that is almost impregnable, but he had to reinforce his habitual dignity with will power last night to keep from breaking down, when at the conclusion of the session the toastmaster turned to him and presented to him on behalf of the congregation a beautiful gold watch.

He responded in a touching manner, protesting the inefficiency of human speech to express the tender sentiment awakened by the occasion and the gratitude he felt to the ladies and men of the congregation.

Clarissa.
I took Clarissa for a walk,
Of love I much desired to talk;
She let me.
The witching beauty of her face,
Her look, her tone, her charm, her grace.

Upset me.
I wondered would she understand,
And finally I took her hand;
She let me.
She cast on me the sweetest smiles,
And straightway all of Cupid's wiles
Beset me.

When finally I craved the bliss
Of slipping from her lips a kiss,
She let me.
She now prefers a grim dragon!
How could the fickle flirt so soon
Forget me?
—Harold Susman, in Ainslie's.

The Literary department of the Woman's club held an interesting meeting on Friday morning at the club building. Mrs. Muscoe Burnett, the chairman, presided. A delightful "Study in Topography, Boston, Cambridge, Concord" was given by Mrs. Lucy Robison Ford. Mrs. Ford had visited these places and her description had all the charm of personal reminiscence. "The Book Farm Experiment" was discussed in a clever way by Mrs. Mary McQuot Watson.

A brilliant social event of the week was the marriage of Miss Little May Winstead to Mr. John Swift Montgomery, Jr., of Thomasville, Ga., on Wednesday evening at the Broadway Methodist church. The bride party included a number of out-of-town people. A reception to the wedding party followed the ceremony at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Huston Winstead. The couple left on an eastern bridal trip and will be at home in Thomasville, Ga., after December 1.

Miss Elizabeth Chapeze, of this city, was married to Judge John J.

What Does Your Mirror Say?

Does it cheerfully report an abundance of beautiful, well kept hair, or does it regretfully tell the story of hair neglect?

Your mirror may be anxious to please, but if you permit your friends to see dull, brittle and lusterless hair with possibly dandruff and falling hair, your mirror will have to reflect the same condition.

All of these unfortunate EFFECTS can be overcome by destroying the CAUSE with

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

The Original Remedy that "Kills the Dandruff Germ."

Dandruff, with its consequent hair injury and hair loss, is now known to be a highly contagious germ disease. It is caused by an invisible growth of vegetable character that finds lodgment in the sebaceous gland of the scalp. This growth disturbs the functions of the sebaceous glands, causing excessive oiliness or extreme dryness of the hair. It also sets up an inflammatory process that extends down the follicle to the papilla, where the adhesions are loosened and the hair slips out. The value of Newbro's Herpicide in such cases is quite extraordinary. Its intelligent use will correct every condition short of chronic baldness and thus permit the hair to resume its natural luster and abundance.

Dr. Pierce's Health Talks

The miracle of motherhood is often overshadowed by the misery of motherhood. The great functional changes which are incident to child bearing leave their mark for life on many a mother. Some women offer up their lives as a sacrifice on the altar of motherhood. A far greater number live on in ceaseless misery. Their strength fails, their beauty fades, they have no ambition and no enjoyment in life. To every woman

LUMBER KINGS WILL COMBINE

Chicago to Become Center of Consolidation.

But Resources of Combination Are Almost Without Any Limit.

THE WHITE PINE SUPPLY.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—The Tribune says:

Chicago is to become the sole selling headquarters of the new lumber combination, and Edward Hines is to be president of the syndicate.

While figures publicly stated that fixed the combination as a $20,000,000 affair, competing lumber interests can see no limit to its capitalization, but at the same time they express no fear of its attempting to restrain trade by fixing prices. Frederick Weyerhaeuser, "the lumber king of the continent," Mr. Hines and other directly concerned vanished from Chicago yesterday and it was believed they had gone to the home of Mr. Weyerhaeuser, at St. Paul, Minn. It is believed they are completing the details of the combination.

A capitalist named in the venture was T. B. Walker, the largest individual owner of "standing" white pine in the world. Mr. Weyerhaeuser and Mr. Walker, it is said, have made previous attempts to arrive at a business understanding.

The new combination not only controls the key to the white pine situation, but it also has a large voice in the hemlock, yellow, southern and western pine fields. Mr. Weyerhaeuser is controlling the supply of Mississippi.

Cloquet, Minn., is the center of production of white pine and the controlling elements there are Mr. Weyerhaeuser, the Northern Lumber company, Colquet Lumber company and the Johnson-Wentworth Lumber company—which also came into the new combination with the Cook and O'Brien people.

A Saving Mission.

A minister was deeply impressed by an address on the evils of smoking. He rose from his seat, went over to a fellow minister and said: "Brother, this morning I received a present of 100 good cigars. I have smoked one of them, but now I'm going home and burn the remainder."

The old minister rose and said it was his intention to accompany his reverend brother.

"I mean to rescue the ninety and nine," he added.—Omaha Bee.

NEW BREAD CAUSES STOMACH DISTRESS

You Like it But Don't Dare Eat it For Fear of Indigestion.

You can eat anything your stomach craves without fear of a case of indigestion or dyspepsia, or that your food will ferment or sour on your stomach if you will take Diapiesin after eating.

Your meals will taste good, and anything you eat will be digested; nothing can ferment or turn into acid or poison or stomach gas, which causes Belching, Dizziness, a feeling of fullness after eating, Nausea, indigestion (like a lump of lead in stomach), Bloating, Heartburn, Water brash, Pain in stomach and intestines or other symptoms.

Headaches from the stomach are absolutely unknown where this effective remedy is used. Diapiesin really does all the work of a healthy stomach. It digests your meals when your stomach can't. Each triangle will digest all the food you can eat, and leave nothing to ferment or sour.

Get a large 50-cent case of Papo's Diapiesin from your druggist and start taking today and by tomorrow you will actually brag about your healthy, strong stomach, for you then can eat anything and everything you want without the slightest discomfort or misery, and every particle of impurity and Gas that is in your stomach and intestines is going to be carried away without the use of laxatives or any other assistance.

Keats' Likeness to Milton.

Keats not only has the same largeness of horizon (as Milton), and the same touch of tenderness, but he also had the same public spirit and love of liberty. His letters are full of wise comments on affairs, always from an ideal democratic point of view. He saw humanity in the large, and sympathetically, and no one can doubt his sincerity in saying, in a letter to Reynolds: "I would jump down Ethna for any great public good."—Century.

WEEK OF PRAYER

BEGINS FOR ADVANCEMENT OF KINGDOM.

Seven Lay Brotherhoods Adopt Common Cause—Observance for Sunday.

Tomorrow begins the week of prayer inaugurated at a meeting of seven lay brotherhoods from as many churches at Chicago, January 25, 1908.

The resolution says: "That we recommend to our Brotherhoods and to other organizations of men and to missionary boards throughout the world the observance of the week beginning with the Sunday following the last Thursday in November as a week of special prayer for the spread of Christ's kingdom among men throughout the world."

The suggestion has been endorsed by the following, named in the order of the receipt of their approval: Brotherhood of St. Andrews, Presbyterian Brotherhood of America, Men's Movement of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ, Board of Missions of the Protestant Episcopal church, Brotherhood of St. Andrew in the West Indies, Baptist Young People's Union, Baptist Brotherhood, Church of England Men's Society, Laymen's Missionary Movement, National Conference of Church Clubs, Congregational Brotherhood, United Presbyterian Men's Movement, General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, Brotherhood of St. Andrew in Scotland, Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip, General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, Brotherhood of St. Andrew in England, and the Methodist Brotherhood of the U. S. A.

Tomorrow's prescribed observance is: Meditation: Christ as my Judge. Confession: Of my past sinfulness and neglect of opportunities to hasten the coming of the Kingdom.

Prayer: That the Holy Spirit will help me to cleanse myself of all my sin that I may be fit for His indwelling, and that He will fill me with His grace and heavenly benediction. O God, forasmuch as without Thee we are not able to please Thee, mercifully grant that Thy Holy Spirit may be in all things direct and rule our hearts through Jesus Christ, our Lord; Amen. Psalm 51. St. Matthew, chapter 23.

JAPAN AND U. S. EXCHANGE NOTES

Purpose to Outline Policies in Pacific Countries.

Ex-Member of Cabinet of Mikado Gives It as His Belief Negotiating Treaty of Friendship.

ARE ROOT AND TAKAHIRA.

Tokio, Nov. 28.—President rumors declaring that negotiations are now in progress at Washington between Ambassador Takahira and Secretary of State Root looking to the interchange of diplomatic notes definitely outlining the policies of both governments in regard to the Pacific and China have equal opportunity of finding credence among the newspapers, whose sources of information are generally excellent. One man who is considered an authority on official matters declared today that he has reason to believe that such notes had already actually been exchanged at Washington, but inquiries at the foreign office, while failing to elicit a flat denial of the report, cannot be said to have brought out a direct confirmation. The officials of the American embassy are also preserving a discreet silence, and no information could be gained there.

These rumors are being widely distributed in Tokio and it may be said that the consensus of opinion tends towards a full belief that the pending exchange of such notes is a well-founded report.

A former member of the cabinet and a man who held a high position under the former ministry, said today:

"I am not in the confidence of the present ministry concerning every step that is taken, but I have reason to believe that the report that the exchange of notes at Washington is pending is well founded. Every one will be pleased to receive news of the sealing of such a pact of friendship between the two countries, as it will forever silence the mischief-makers and calamity howlers who for the past two years have spared no effort to promote friction between America and Japan. A pronouncement which would definitely state the policies of both countries as to the Pacific and Chinese commerce treaties would give government impetus towards the peaceful development of the entire civilized world. I devoutly hope that the rumors are true."

EYE TROUBLES

Caused by Improper Food.

Most people would never think of connecting eye disease with the food they eat. But when we remember that every part of the body—every organ—is nourished by the blood and the blood is made of the food we eat, it seems reasonable to trace even eye troubles to food.

A N. Y. man had an interesting experience at one of the great hospitals in that city that may benefit persons who have chronic eye trouble. He writes:

"Four years ago I was stricken with an eye trouble. After being unsuccessfully treated by several physicians and oculists, I went to a noted New York hospital. "On examination they pronounced my case iritis (inflammation of the iris), caused by poor blood on account of improper assimilation of food.

"They had to operate on my right eye, keeping me in a dark room and on a strict diet for several weeks. When leaving, the doctor cautioned me in regard to saving the other eye, saying that I must be temperate as to my diet and use neither tea nor coffee.

"I told him it would be almost impossible for me to get and live on what they had given me at the hospital. He replied: 'It is not necessary. As an official here I cannot recommend any private brand of food or drink. As a friend I advise you to try Grape-Nuts, discard all fatty, heating foods as much as possible, especially in the morning.'

"This advice I have followed, excepting a few times when I have grown careless, but danger signals always come, such as specks and blots before my eyes and some inflammation. You may be certain I go back to what my doctor advised—Grape-Nuts." "There's a Reason."

BETTER RELATION WITH CANADA

Free Trade Demanded By Detroit
Wholesale Association and the Speaker of Canadian House.

HIS PEOPLE QUITE WILLING.

Detroit, Nov. 28.—R. F. Sutherland, speaker of the Canadian house of parliament, addressed a meeting of

W. B. McPherson's Unusual Offer.

"It isn't often that I have faith enough in the medicine put up by other people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure," said W. B. McPherson to a Sun man who dropped into his store, "but I am glad to sell Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia on that basis."

"The Dr. Howard company, in order to get a quick introductory sale, authorizes me to sell their regular 50 cent bottles at half price, 25 cents, and, although I have sold a lot of it, and have guaranteed every package not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory."

"There are sixty doses in a vial that can be carried in the vest pocket or purse, and every one has more medicinal power than a big pill or tablet or a tumbler of mineral water. I am still selling the specific at half price, although I cannot tell how long I shall be able to do so, and anyone who is subject to constipation, sick headache, dizziness, liver trouble, indigestion or a general played-out condition, ought to take advantage of this chance."

the Wholesalers' Association of Detroit and declared that if there was to be any improvement in the trade relations between Canada and the United States, the initiative must now come from the United States. Canada, he said, had done her part and it was owing to the attitude of the United States that the Dominion had adopted the preferential tariff and given Great Britain and other countries trade advantages in Canada.

The association adopted resolutions declaring that the trade relations with Canada could be greatly improved and that, under the Canadian intermediate tariff, concessions would be granted to the United States if the latter government should so request. The president and congress are requested to take proper steps to insure freer trade between the two countries and it is urged that in the contemplated revision of the tariff of the United States suitable provision be made by congress empowering the president or a commission to be appointed by him or by congress, to complete negotiations with Canada whereby more free interchange of raw materials and manufactured goods can be had.

Bulgaria Wants Guarantee of Rights
From Turkey or Will Resist an Invasion.

MOUNTING SOME MORE GUNS

Constantinople, Nov. 28.—According to Yenz Gazette, the grand vizier's organ, Baron Von Aehrenthal, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, in a recent conversation told the Turkish charge d'affaires at Austria that he had done everything possible, but fruitlessly to secure a conciliatory settlement of the difficulties. Austria wished to be friends with Turkey, he added, but could also be her enemy. Aehrenthal said also that the request of Count Pallavicini, Austro-Hungarian ambassador to Turkey, for leave of absence would be granted when it was seen negotiations were certain to fail.

Bulgaria's Attitude.
Sofia, Bulgaria, Nov. 28.—What the attitude of Bulgaria will be in the event of hostilities between Austria-Hungary and Turkey is the question that is beginning to claim attention here. It has revived speculation concerning the existence of some sort of Austro-Bulgarian convention. A cabinet minister said Bulgaria's hands are absolutely free to act in whatever manner she may consider advantageous. Direct co-operation between Austria and Bulgaria was unthinkable, he added, but Bulgaria would have to resist the temptation of the favorable moment for the invasion of Macedonia unless Turkey had given previous guarantees of her intention to grant official, civil and political rights to Bulgarian population of Macedonia.

DARING ATTEMPT TO KILL EMPRESS

Rural Guard Killed While Attending
Funeral of Late Grand Duke
Alexis.

MOTHER OF CZAR FIRED UPON

St. Petersburg, Nov. 28.—Advice just received from Riga and Dvinsk tell of a daring attempt to assassinate the Dowager Empress Marie, mother of the czar, while she was attending the funeral of the Grand Duke Alexis. The attempt was foiled by the police, who placed the would-be assassin under arrest after a desperate fight.

Her majesty came down from Copenhagen to meet the train that conveyed the body of the grand duke.

While waiting at the station between Dvinsk and Riesenitz, the actions of a man on the platform aroused the suspicions of the police officers. They attempted to arrest him, whereupon he fired several shots from a revolver, killing a rural guard. After a desperate fight he was overpowered and arrested. Two alleged accomplices, who hovered in the environs, were pursued, but managed to escape. The police are highly praised for the frustration of the plot.

The dowager empress has for many years been one of the many Russian royalties whose assassination has been repeatedly planned by the anarchists.

In March, 1905, the social revolutionists passed sentence of death on thirty of the high Russian personages, among them the dowager empress. The plot was discovered, however, and the conspirators arrested.

In April of the same year the police discovered a gang of revolutionists inhabiting a villa at Tsarskoe Selo. Among their documents was a list of prospective assassinations, and the dowager empress' name led all the rest.

On October 13, 1907, five stowaways were discovered in the hold of a vessel at Copenhagen, who, when arrested, admitted they had been sent to kill Marie. November 22 was the next date of a frustrated plot.

On January 3, 1908, nineteen persons were arrested and well laid plans for the assassination were discovered by the police. The conspirators had been so confident of success that they had posted a death notice in the Novoe Vremya.

Strict police precautions were taken during the recent visit of the dowager to England and the plans for the dowager's entertainment were kept secret on account of the danger of assassination.

As a consequence of these numerous attempts on her life, Marie has of late led a secluded life at Copenhagen, where the police make it their sole business to guard her against violent death.
